

Country

Noun: a term used by First Nations peoples to refer to the lands, waters and skies to which they are connected through ancestral ties and family origins

Country is alive and speaks to us everyday.

Ways of STORYTELLING

- writing a book
- animation
- poetry
- short film
- song-writing
- script

Making a PROMISE

What does it look like?

What is the language we use?

- pledge
- vow
- assure
- affirm
- agree
- declare
- affirm
- guarantee

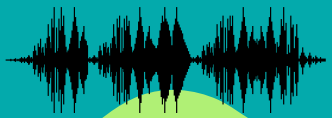

Ways to LISTEN

- with your heart
- with your ears
- with your mind
- electronically

HEAR on Country

are you listening?

SOUNDS of Nature

Can you hear its whispers and roars?

Types of LISTENING

There are four types of listening -

1. appreciative - for enjoyment (eg. music)
2. empathic - to show mutual concern
3. comprehensive - listening to understand and learn
4. critical - to evaluate the content of the message & use critical thinking

Connection

Noun: a relationship in which a person or thing is linked or associated with something else.

